

FRIENDS OF THE BARTOW COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM WINTER NEWSLETTER

January, 2009

FRIENDS QUARTERLY MEETING JANUARY 13, 7:00PM NATHAN DEAN ROOM, CARTERSVILLE LIBRARY

“Local Author Susan May to Speak”

Bring a friend, join us for our Quarterly Friends meeting and listen to Author Susan May talk about her book, Nick's New Heart. This is the story of her youngest son's journey through three open heart surgeries and a heart transplant prior to the age of two. For a preview of the book, you can go to www.susancmay.com.

WINTER BOOK SALE RAISES $ 1263.50

Despite a chilly weekend, the December 6th used book sale was well attended and raised a total of $1263.50. Along with the used book sale, there were book bags available for purchase for $5. During the last one hour of the book sale, for an additional $5 you could fill the bag up. This program was well received by book sale shoppers and will be repeated at our Spring book sale scheduled March 7, 2009.

A big Thank you to the many volunteers who donated their time and energies towards making the winter book sale such a success.

Your efforts are greatly appreciated!
&
You truly are good Friends!

EUHARLEE FRIENDS SNEAK PEEK A SUCCESS

Euharlee Friends of the Library “Sneak Peak” of the new Emmie Nelson Library was well attended. Despite some inclement weather, the event, through silent auction, bake sale and ticket sales raised $1852 for the purchase of books and media for the Library. Congratulations to the Euharlee Friends of the Library (EFOL) for their hard work, thorough planning and hugely successful event.

BRANCH FRIENDS GROUPS CONTINUE TO EXPAND

Adairsville branch of Library elects board officers

The Adairsville branch of the Library system which has recently begun organizational meetings is moving forward and looking for new members in the Adairsville area. At the last Friends meeting they elected board officers, Kenneth Bass (President), Marion Antonio (VP), Rose McCrainie (Treasurer) and Linda Bass (Secretary). It is unknown at this time who will be the Liaison to the system board. Their next meeting is January 14th at 10:30am in the Library Program room of the Adairsville Branch of the Bartow County Library System.

FESTIVAL OF TINY TREES AND WREATHS RETURNED TO THE CARTERSVILLE MAIN LIBRARY CHRISTMAS 2008

The Cartersville Women's club took on the task of planning and organizing a rebirth of the Festival of Tiny Trees and Wreaths to benefit the Friends of the Bartow County Library.

Kay Boulier and Carol Youd along with other members of the Cartersville Women's Club were tireless in their efforts to revive this festival. The event, which included 18 decorated trees and wreaths for silent auction was held in the Nathan Dean room the week of December first through the fifth. The festival culminated with a lovely Jingle Bell reception catered by Yolanda Bost, personal chef, along with entertainment provided by Ollene Kordecki. The event was well attended and enjoyed by all with $761 being raised for the Friends of the Library.

A Big Thank you to the Cartersville Women's Club!

SPICY PARTY DIP RECIPE REQUEST GETS ANSWERED

Attendees of the Fall Annual meeting had the opportunity to taste some delicious goodies prepared by the speaker, Yolanda Bost, personal chef, during her presentation on Cost Effective Holiday Entertaining. Many have clamored for the recipes. Yolanda shares this favorite for your snacking pleasure. ENJOY!

1cup sour cream

½ cup Parmesan Cheese, grated

½ cup Miracle Whip salad dressing

1 Tablespoon Chipotle pepper in Adobe sauce

½ teaspoon Garlic powder

Combine all ingredients.

Cover and chill until ready to serve.

Serve with fresh veggies, assorted crackers and or chips
